County Courthouse Custodian Retires

By ALVIN YEAROUT

NEWKIRK — Retirement has claimed another devoted Kay County servant.

H. G. Fulton, superintendent of buildings and grounds of the courthouse here for the past 22 years, has called it quits.

Fulton, a native of Illinois but resident of Oklahoma since 1927, has been the man who has kept employes in the courthouse satisfied by doing all types of "fix-it" jobs during his 22-year tenure.

Born in Swanwick, Ill., April 25, 1883, Fulton moved with his wife to Blackwell in 1927, at which time he began work for the city of Blackwell.

After several years there, Fulton was hired by the county.

Frank Koelling, of Blackwell, one of the commissioners at the time of Fulton's hiring, was on hand Wednesday afternoon when courthouse personnel honored the wiry custodian before he goes into retirement at the close of the month.

County Atty. Ralph C. Haynes, in a brief speech before presenting the Fultons with a coffee percolator as a present from the courthouse staff, summed up Fulton's willingness to help. "During a recent hailstorm, Gertrude (Hayne's secretary) found a tennis racquet in her desk and Fulton raced out to try and protect her (Gertrude's) car from the hail."

More frequent chores for Fulton included the handling of other custodians, fixing any little item courthouse personnel might have broken such as desks, pencil sharpeners, chairs, clocks or windows.

Fulton and his wife Margaret moved to Newkirk immediately after he was hired at the courthouse and have been residents here since. They are members of the Presbyterian Church and Eastern Star and he has been an officer of the Blue Lodge.

The couple—they were childhood neighbors and went to school together—will have been married 58 years next September.

They have five children. Two sons, Harold and Lyle, work at the Acme Foundry, Blackwell, and a third son resides in Pomona, Calif. Two daughters, Mrs. Roby Linn and Mrs. Margaret Ruth Lauderdale, both reside in Houston, Tex.

When asked what he plans to do after retiring, Fulton paused and then slowly said, "Oh, just fool around."

Mrs. Fulton broke in to say, "We're going to visit with all the children."

With a cake especially baked for the occasion, officials and other employes of the courthouse Thursday held a retirement party honoring Fulton, with his wife as one of the guests.

Fulton said he wishes to thank all the county commissioners, past and present, and Joe Clark, recently retired county engineer, for all the help and advice they gave him through the years.

It isn't fun to say "Good-bye"
But since it must be said
"Good-bye for now
and best of luck
Through all the days ahead!"

DEATH OF J. W. FULTON.

Many Aurora people had known Mr. James W. Fulton had been ailing of late, but it was not known until the close of last week how serious was his condition and that prospects for his recovery were very doubtful. Mr. Fulton had been afflicted with a very large carbuncle on his body and, in spite of the efforts of physicians, the painful malady grew more aggravated until a few days before death blood poison set in. From that time until the sufferer passed away on Sunday afternoon the fight for life was a hopeless one. While his acquaintance was not as extensive, perhaps, as that of his brothers, he had acquired very good friends, who join with the relatives in sharing the sorrow occasioned by his departure.

James Wilson Fulton was born at Swanwick, Illinois, January 22, 1857, and died at Aurora, Nebr. October 31, 1915, aged 58 years, 9 months and 7 days. December 1st, 1880, he was married to Miss Margaret Peters, of Swanwick. To them was born five children, all of whom survive the parents. The children are as follows: Howard, of Aurora. Mrs. Myrtle McClelland, of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Laurie Morris, of Thompsonville, Ill.; Favorite, of Aurora, and Letty, of Kansas City.

Mr. Fulton's death was unexpected until within a few days of the time when it occurred. Ailing for only a few short weeks and then gone—a sorrowful reminder "That in the midst of life we are in death."

A part of Mr. Fulton's life was spent in St. Louis, where he was a member of the Forester's Lodge and also of the Emanuel Presbyterian church. The remains were taken Tuesday morning to Swanwick, Illinois, where they will be laid beside those of his wife who died some three years ago. Brief services were held at the Aurora residence at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning Rev. J. H. Salsbury D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church, being in charge.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank all the friends and relatives for their uniform kindness during the illness and at the time of the death of our father and brother, James Wilson Fulton.
